

SATB with Solo

Love Is A Verb

William Flanders

$\text{♩} = 66$ Solo

1. Don't count on love to come fly - ing in your win - dow.

Don't count on love to mys - ter - ious - ly ap - pear,

born from a - bove as an an - swer to your trou - bles,

fill - ing your heart with in - ten - tions most sin - cere.

Refrain

17

Love is - n't there, some pos - ses - sion bought or found.

21

Love is no thing, noth - ing good to have a - round. Yet peo - ple, at times, can be lov - ing in their ac - tions.

25

29

Love is a verb, not a noun.

S.A.T.B.

33

2.Love as a noun may be kind and may be pa - tient, but

37

41

love as a noun al - ways tends to be un - real. When

45

love be - comes lov - ing, then real things start to hap - pen, and

49

love is re - ceived as a fact, not an i - deal.

53

Love is - n't there, some pos - ses - sion bought or found.

57

Love is - n't there, some pos - ses - sion bought or found.

61

Love is - n't there, some pos - ses - sion bought or found.

65 S.A.T.B. Refrain

Love is - n't there, some pos - ses - sion bought or found.

69

Love is - n't there, some pos - ses - sion bought or found.

73

Love is no thing, noth - ing good to have a - round. Yet peo - ple, at times, can be lov - ing in their ac - tions.

77

81

85

89

Love is a verb, not a noun. (3.Not)

Solo End

93

97

boast - ful nor rude, nev - er sel - fish, slow to an - ger, is love the ab - strac - tion, a vir - tue some would praise. But 105

101

liv - ing here and now calls for down to earth ex - pres - sion, and

109

Return to S.A.T.B. Refrain

lov - ing can't ex - pect to be ap - proved in all its ways.