

SO SEEKS THE MIND, SO YEARNs THE HEART

William Flanders

♩ = 92

1. So seeks the mind, so yearns the heart for
2. We look to sci - ence or to creed, af -
3. Some may, for proof, to Scrip - ture look: the
4. No less than mys - tery we pur - sue, as
5. This is the Christ, this truth in love, come

4
what is true in fact, in art, _____ be - yond what's ter our in - terest or our need. _____ But creed gives Good, the an - cient hon - ored Book. _____ Yet words are old as old, and new as new, _____ a love that from with - in and "from a - bove": _____ a truth our read, be - yond what's told: a truth that, giv - en _____ all, will hold.

7
way, as sci - ence will: one trapped in time, one nev - er still.
born of hu - man stock, and truth e - ludes a _____ lit - eral lock.
God a - lone im parts that, wel - comed, dwells in _____ minds and hearts.
minds re - ceive as just, a truth our hearts re - ceive and trust.

Copyright 2004 by William Flanders