Guitar chords in E

B7 E C#m F#m B7 E/G# F# B

1. Who is our neighbor? That's the ques-tion. Who is this per - son we're to love?
2. We do re - call a cer - tain sto - ry: A man's been mugged and bad - ly hurt.
3. Who, of the pass-ers - by, proved neigh-bor to him who could not ev - en move?

6 B7 E E7 A F#m D B

The one a-cross the street? Or next door? Or in the a - part-ment up a - bove?
He's in a ditch where o - thers see him, but leave him there ly - ing in the dirt.
Now that's a ques - tion we can an - swer: the one who did care for him with love.

11 B7 E/G# A B B7 A E/G# F#m

Just tell us how to know our neigh-bor, — and him or her we'll love as best we can.
Then comes a for - eign - er who helps him, — some-one who has no busi-ness be-ing here,
Then... an - y-one might be our neigh-bor, — if we would on - ly take the time to heed,

Ritard last verse

We won't be per-sons with-out feel - ings, with no re - gard for our fel - low man.
yet will not leave the man un - cared for. But who's our neigh-bor? It's still not clear.
with un - der-stand-ing and com - pas - sion, their cir - cum-stan - ces; from that, their need.
